

“Character Education is not a program — it’s a way of life.”

Check us out at our New Website at: www.mdctrcharacter.net

September 2018 Newsletter

Volume 1, Issue 2

Maryland Center for Character Education at Stevenson University Awards Program, October 11, 2018

Baltimore, MD — The Maryland Center for Character Education at Stevenson University (MCCE@SU) is dedicated to making an ethical difference in the lives of individuals and the entire community through education. The Center encourages teachers, counselors, and administrators, in public and private schools to teach, model, and reinforce moral values and ethical behavior.

We hope to see you there. If you have any questions please contact Linda Muska, Executive Coordinator at MCCEcharacter@aol.com.

Our program will begin at 8:30 with a continental and time for schools to setup their School Displays. Our Keynote Speaker will be Capt. Rick Rubel, Distinguished Military Professor of Ethics, U.S. Naval Academy.

On Thursday, October 11th MCCE@SU will hold its annual Awards Program at the Embassy Suites by Hilton in Cockeysville, MD.

Fall is on its way!

Inside this issue:

MCCE@SU Awards Program
School Counselor

In partnership with the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) and Character.org, MCCE@SU will honor 646 schools from throughout Maryland, which includes one State School of Character and four National Schools of Character.

MCCE@SU 2018 Awards Program

Embassy Suites by Hilton

213 International Circle

Hunt Valley / Cockeysville, MD
410-584-1400

This website houses several resources for school counselors. Online from newsletters to lesson plans and scholastic journal articles. There are a few items that are available for purchase, but for the most part everything is free.

Issue #151 (September 18, 2015) of the SchoolCounselor.com eNewsletter is now online!

Check it out:
www.schoolcounselor.com/

